ANYONE WISHING TO ADDRESS COUNCIL

Marilyn Reeder presented request to pay one half the cost to produce video on the Village of Genoa. Sharon McCullough spoke on this video being the next stepping stone in the promotion of Genoa. Jim Harpen of Duck Communications & Marketing spoke on the attributes of having this video and highlighting some of the business such as Packer Creek Pottery. Mrs. Slotnick stated all business must be included if the Village was to be involved. Mr. Harpen stated all scripts would be available to be approved before final release. Marilyn Reeder stated would focus on all of Genoa not just one business. Mayor sent the request to Ad Hoc. Mrs. Kreager stated she would call a meeting but would wait until an opinion was received from Cindy Smith, Village Solicitor. Mrs. Smith stated she would have the opinion on Tuesday. Mrs. Slotnick asked how much was being requested from the Village. Mr. Fryman asked who would pay for the 30 second sponsored highlights. Jim Harpen stated the businesses would be responsible for those spots. Mr. Fryman asked about editing rights before release as the Village does not want to buy a pig in the poke. Mrs. Slotnick asked if the Council would be able to see the final version before released. Jim Harpen stated it was not usually done that way but something could be worked out.
